++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunshine and showers with east seeing best of shelter.

Today:
Sunshine and showers through Monday with outbreaks occasional across Moray and western Aberdeenshire, but few reaching the east coast where the best of the sunshine develops. Westerly winds fresh, occasionally strong across the coasts. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tonight:
Further showers during the evening, again mainly focused in the west. Showers dwindling overnight, with most dry, clear and, away from windward coasts, frosty come dawn Tuesday, as winds ease. Minimum temperature -4 deg C (25 deg F).

Tuesday:
Most staying dry with plenty of weak winter sunshine around, but the odd light shower may crop up in the west and around the Moray coast. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Dry start to Wednesday, then sleet, snow later. Thursday rather cloudy with strengthening northerly winds, bringing showers or longer periods of rain, sleet, possibly snow. Wintry showers for Friday.
